ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.

ABOUT THE MESSAGES

These messages were developed by the Washington Low Income Housing Alliance. Our focus groups and statewide survey proved that they work. By framing affordable housing in terms of closely held values, these messages convince Washington voters to support our work.

Use one or all of these messages in conversations with legislators, letters to the editor, comments on blogs, and anywhere you want to be effective in making your case.